CHANGE IN ENTITY STATUS

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

The undersigned has noted that the 12th year maintenance fee was paid with a claim of small entity status. The claim of small entity is not correct for this case, and the undersigned wishes to correct the error immediately. The error was discovered when we conducted a review of this patent in preparation of an request for extension of patent term. The owner is a non-profit entity entitled to small entity status as is our licensee of this patent which is a small business with less than 500 employees. We discovered that our licensee, while entitled to small entity status, had sublicensed this patent to a company which does not qualify for small entity status.

Attached is a chart showing (1) the maintenance fee due and fee paid; (2) the amount paid to the USPTO; and (3) the amount owed to the USPTO. I have enclosed a credit card payment form to authorize the charge of $2,675.00 which is the difference between the small entity fee paid and large entity fee due for the 12th year maintenance fee.

Respectfully submitted,
